'Walking Football' (soccer) tryout

In Plougonvelin,

Soccer is the most popular sport in the world, but not accessible to all in competition. To address this issue, England has invented in 2011 'Walking football', i.e. soccer while walking. A discipline that is becoming popular in France, especially in the southern region. 'Walking football' is above all an opportunity for seniors to practice the sport they love without risk to their health and with rules adapted to their physical condition.

You are wondering about the practice of 'Walking football'? Come and try it with the players who will be happy to show you the ropes. There are only two conditions to meet: to be over 50 years old and to bring sports clothes.

11:45 AM: Exhibition Matches.
